Bonhoeffer The Assassin Challenging The Myth Recovering His Call To Peacemaking:

Bonhoeffer the Assassin? Mark Thiessen Nation, Anthony G. Siegrist, Daniel P. Umbel, 2013-10-01 Most of us think we know the moving story of Dietrich Bonhoeffer's life a pacifist pastor turns anti Hitler conspirator due to horrors encountered during World War II but does the evidence really support this prevailing view This pioneering work carefully examines the biographical and textual evidence and finds no support for the theory that Bonhoeffer abandoned his ethic of discipleship and was involved in plots to assassinate Hitler In fact Bonhoeffer consistently affirmed a strong stance of peacemaking from 1932 to the end of his life and his commitment to peace was integrated with his theology as a whole The book includes a foreword by Stanley Hauerwas

Christian Martyrdom and Christian Violence Matthew D. Lundberg, 2021 What is the place if any for violence in the Christian life This book explores this question by analyzing a paradox of mainstream Christian history theology and ethics At the heart of the Christian story the suffering of violence stands as the price of faithfulness From Jesus himself to martyrs who have died while following him at the core of Christian faith is an experience of being victimized by the world's violence At the same time the majority opinion for most of Christian history has held that there are situations when the follower of Jesus may be justified in inflicting violence on others especially in the context of war Do these two facets of Christian ethics and experience martyrdom and the just war represent a contradiction the self defeating irony of those who follow a Lord who refused to defend himself taking up deadly weapons In arguing that they do not the book contends that any meaningful coherence between a theology of martyrdom and commitment to a just war ethic requires shifts away from a common heroic conception of Christian martyrdom and a common secularized Realpolitik conception of necessary violence Instead it requires a view of martyrdom that acknowledges even the martyrs as subject to the ambiguities of the human condition even as they present a compelling witness to Jesus and the way of the cross And it requires an approach to justified violence that reflects the self sacrificial ethos of Jesus displayed in the lives of true Christian martyrs

Martin Luther's Theology of Two Kingdoms in Buddhist and Christian Communities Pa Yaw, 2024-05-29 Socially engaged religion teaches that people of faith have a responsibility to address and reduce suffering in all its forms both physical and spiritual including suffering resulting from social injustice exploitation oppression false faith and so forth True religion engages with society to alleviate suffering and bring transformation In other words religious violence is an obscenity a deviation from the true character of religion Martin Luther s Theology of Two Kingdoms in Buddhist and Christian Communities examines the principle of separation between religion and politics in the context of both Buddhist and Christian communities In predominantly Buddhist contexts such as Myanmar where a reciprocal relationship between religion and politics is expected separation is not effective Attempts by Christians to separate religion and politics cause the church to run away from tyranny and follow the state with blind obedience Martin Luther's model of two distinct but interconnected systems for religion and politics creates space for each institution to give constructive advice and criticism to the other for the health of all human beings

Understanding Bonhoeffer Peter Frick, 2017-05-23 How are we to understand Bonhoeffer In these essays Peter Frick attempts to answer this question by examining different aspects of Bonhoeffer's thought thus illuminating the hermeneutical philosophical theological and social dimensions of his writings All sixteen essays collected here were written between 2007 and 2014 some of them address the question of methodology others contribute to Bonhoeffer's intellectual formation and still others seek to connect with contemporary questions The aim of the volume is to present Bonhoeffer's key theological and philosophical ideas and to emphasize their contemporary relevance Bonhoeffer's Reception of Luther Michael P.

DeJonge, 2017-02-09 In Dietrich Bonhoeffer's writings Martin Luther is ubiquitous Too often however Bonhoeffer's Lutheranism has been set aside with much less argumentative work than is appropriate in light of his sustained engagement with Luther As a result Luther remains a largely untouched hermeneutic key in Bonhoeffer interpretation In Bonhoeffer's Reception of Luther Michael P DeJonge presents Bonhoeffer's Lutheran theology of justification focused on the interpersonal presence of Christ in word sacrament and church The bridge between this theology and Bonhoeffer's ethical political reflections is his two kingdoms thinking Arguing that the widespread failure to connect Bonhoeffer with the Lutheran two kingdoms tradition has presented a serious obstacle in interpretation DeJonge shows how this tradition informs Bonhoeffer's reflections on war and peace as well as his understanding of resistance to political authority In all of this DeJonge argues that an appreciation of Luther's ubiquity in Bonhoeffer's corpus sheds light on his thinking lends it coherence and makes sense of otherwise difficult interpretive problems What might otherwise appear as disparate even contradictory moments or themes in Bonhoeffer's theology can often be read in terms of a consistent commitment to a basic Lutheran theological framework deployed according to dramatically changing circumstances

Bodies of Peace Myles Werntz, 2014 Bodies of Peace argues that Christian nonviolence is both formed by and forms ecclesial life creating an inextricable relationship between church commitment and resistance to war In this volume Myles Werntz examines the work of John Howard Yoder Dorothy Day William Stringfellow and Robert McAfee Brown demonstrating how each thinker's advocacy for nonviolent resistance depends deeply upon the ecclesiology out of which it comes The volume argues that any account of an ecclesially informed resistance to war must be open to a multitude of approaches not as pragmatic concessions but as a foretaste of ecumenical unity The Oxford Handbook of Dietrich Bonhoeffer Michael Mawson, Philip G. Ziegler, 2019-11-06 This volume provides a comprehensive resource for those wishing to understand the German theologian pastor and resistance conspirator Dietrich Bonhoeffer 1906-1945 and his writings During his lifetime he made important contributions to many of the major areas of theology ecclesiology creation Christology discipleship and ethics The Oxford Handbook of Dietrich Bonhoeffer surveys assesses and presents the field of research and debates of Bonhoeffer and his legacy as well as of previous Bonhoeffer scholarship. Featuring contributions from leading Bonhoeffer scholars, historians, theologians, and ethicists, many essays draw attention to Bonhoeffer's positive contributions, while several essays also identify limits and problems with his thinking as it stands. Divided into five parts, the first section provides a detailed outline of Bonhoeffer's biography and the contexts that gave rise to his theology. The contributors explore the dynamic relationship between Bonhoeffer's life and theology. Section two provides rigorous engagements with and assessments of Bonhoeffer's theology on its own terms. Part three demonstrates how Bonhoeffer's ethical claims and engagements are deeply integrated with theological commitments. The fourth section showcases some of the best work drawing upon Bonhoeffer for engaging contemporary challenges, including feminism, race, public theology in South Africa, and contemporary philosophy. In recent decades, Bonhoeffer's theology has provoked significant critical reflection on social and cultural issues. The essays in this section exemplify how his writings can continue to contribute to such reflection today. The fifth and final section consists of essays on resources for the contemporary study of Bonhoeffer and his theology, including sources and texts, biographies and portraits, and readings and receptions. These essays also address pressing historiographical issues and problems surrounding writing about Bonhoeffer's life and theology. This authoritative collection draws together and assesses the very best of existing research on Bonhoeffer and promotes new avenues for research on Bonhoeffer.

Bearing Sin as Church Community Hyun Joo Kim, 2022-07-28

Hyun Joo Kim claims that Bonhoeffer transforms and reconstructs the Augustinian doctrine of original sin by shifting the hamartiological premise from the doctrine of God to the doctrine of the church based on his Lutheran resources. In Bonhoeffer's view, Augustine's doctrine of original sin does not fully relate the doctrine of sin to the responsibility of the saints. In order to reform Augustinian hamartiology, Bonhoeffer appropriates Augustine's notion of the church as the whole Christ, totus Christus, which is located in Augustine's ecclesiology. Kim explicates how Augustine relates his epistemological premises in his Christianized Platonism to his formulation of the doctrine of original sin and examines how Luther's Christocentric standpoint transforms Augustine's anthropology and ultimately leads Luther to his relational hamartiology. Kim contends that Bonhoeffer's later hamartiology and ethics contain the most distinctive characteristics of Bonhoeffer's doctrine of sin in that he not only incorporates both the active and passive dimensions of sin but also intensifies his continuing notion of vicarious representative action towards the church community.
